Calendar of Events

Monday, May 15
- Rising Rabbit Room Picks, 10am -2pm (House Office)
- Fellowships Meeting, 10-11pm (JCR)

Wednesday, May 17
- Last day for CUE evaluations!
- HoCo meeting, 9-10:30pm
- Donut Bash, 10:30pm-1:30am (Dining Hall)

Thursday, May 18
- Final Exams Begin

The complete schedule can be found online at www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu

On Tap Next Week:
- Senior Dinner (Mon)

---

Visit to Strip Club Costly for Priest

Police in Romania say they have caught a thief who stole money from a priest's car while he was in a strip club. The 43-year-old priest was allegedly spotted by the thief in a club called No Problem in Suceava town, reports Evenimentul Zilei newspaper. Witnesses say he was being free with his money, hiring all of the dancers to perform for him and his friends. Police say the thief found out which was the priest's car and broke into it, stealing £4,000 he found in a suitcase. But officers managed to track him down and recover the money, after studying CCTV footage from the club's carpark. Church authorities said they will start their own investigation into the priest's moral qualifications for his job.

Man Found Glued to Wal-Mart Restroom Toilet Seat

Salisbury, Md. - A trip to the men's room turned into a sticky situation for one Wal-Mart employee, who didn't check the seat before he sat down. For the second time in a month, authorities in Salisbury are investigating a report of a man glued to a toilet seat, they said Tuesday. The latest incident happened Sunday night at the North Salisbury Wal-Mart. An employee found the 20-year-old man stuck to the seat and banging on a wall for help. The man was treated at Peninsula Regional Medical Center. Late in the evening on April Fool's Day, a man became glued to a seat at a local Denny's restaurant.

Police Hunt Robin Hood Thieves

German police are hunting a gang of Robin Hoods who steal food from exclusive restaurants and delis to give to the poor. The anarchist thieves, who wear superhero costumes during their raids, have struck repeatedly in recent months in Hamburg, reports the Scotsman. After they plundered Kobe beef fillets, champagne and smoked salmon from a gourmet store on exclusive Elbastrasse, they presented the cashier with a bouquet of flowers. And they left a note saying: "Without the abilities of the superheroes to help them, it would be impossible for ordinary people to survive in the city of the millionaires." In another recent swoop, the gang emptied a groaning buffet table in a top restaurant into sacks, while one of their number held up a sign saying: "The fat years are over". In internet statements, the gang say their booty is distributed to the poorest of Germany's long-term unemployed. They are also behind black market cinema tickets which they distribute free to the poor, and they have printed leaflets telling passengers how to dodge ticket inspectors on the city's underground and buses. But police spokesman Bodo Franz said: "They get off feeling they are just like Robin Hood. There are about 30 in the group. But whatever their motives, they are thieves, plain and simple."

---

Reel Trivia: What Movie is this from...

“If I’m not back in five minutes... Just wait longer!”

---

Exams, exams... they suck.
Birthdays!
15 Amelia Kimball
16 Mark Higgins
19 Mark Doolin, Anglea Makabali
20 Caitlin Cahow, Stacey Borden,
21 Patrick Holkins, Harris Hai Pham

Hare Today Week of May 15

Contact: Aaron Ross, Editor
news@leverett.harvard.edu
Submit: tell us about your events at:
www.leverett.harvard.edu/newsletter/submit/

---

Announcements:

Bike Week 2006!
Events throughout the week, including:
* Bike Week Commuter Challenge: May 15 - 19
* Bicycle Commuter Breakfast, May 17
* 2006 BIKE BASH: Wednesday, May 24
For more information, visit http://www.seaporttma.org/bikeWeek2006.htm
Sponsored by CommuterChoice Program, Quad Bikes, the City of Cambridge, and HUPD

Call for Low Strong Principals & Section Players
The Mozart Society Orchestra will hold early auditions for the following openings in the 2006-07 season:
* 2 co-principal cellos
* 1 co-principal viola
* 1 principal bass
* section cellos, violas & basses
Audition Time, Location, & Requirements
* Anytime between now and June 15, 2006, by appointment with music director Akiko Fujimoto (fujimoto@fas)
* up to 5 minutes of solo music or orchestral excerpts
* sight reading
E-mail announcements to news@fas.harvard.edu

---

Quotes:
"Behind every successful man is a woman, behind her is his wife."
Groucho Marx
"The secret of creativity is knowing how to hide your sources."
Albert Einstein.

---

Bank Robbers - Aged 13
Two 13-year-olds and a 14-year-old have been arrested on suspicion of a string of bank robberies in Canada. Police in Vancouver arrested the three teenagers following the robberies, reports CBC News. "Within the last month and a half we're looking at seven robberies all over the Lower Mainland," said RCMP Cpl Roger Morrow. Morrow says he has never seen such young boys involved in such brazen robberies. "At our meeting this morning where this series of events came up, we sat around the table and were speechless at having kids of this age involved in this type of crime." Police say no weapons were used in any of the robberies.

---

Reel Trivia: The Answer Is...

Ace Ventura: Pet Detective
The final push, seniors! Or, drop out and be a pet detective! Hard choices...