ALL HARE’S EVE

EERIE EVENTS AND HARROWING HAPPENINGS

10/31: Happy Halloween!!!
11/1: Harvard Community Walk 12 Noon - Meet on the steps of the MAC
11/1: Internships 101 4-5pm at OCS (54 Dunster St.)
11/1: Artist Talk: Tim Rollins 6-8pm at the Sackler Museum (485 Broadway)
11/2: Day of the Dead Fiesta 5-8pm at the Peabody Museum (11 Divinity Ave.)
11/2: World Peace and Other 4th-Grade Achievements: A Film Screening and Discussion 7:15-9pm at Langdell North Campus (Law School)
11/3: The Inside Scoop on Who Gets Hired in International Development 10-11:15am at OCS
11/3: Global Health Fair 4-6pm at OCS
11/3: Photographer Panel Discussion “Explore Harvard: The Yard and Beyond” 6-7pm at (CGIS South - 1730 Cambridge St.)
11/3: (Not just) Sherry Hour 5-6pm in the SCR
11/3: Community Night 5:30-7pm in Lev DHall!
11/4: Othello 8pm at New College Theatre (12 Holyoke St.)
11/4: Accidental Death of an Anarchist 8pm at the Loeb Mainstage (Show repeated 11/5; tickets at Loeb Box Office and Harvard Box Office)

Hai-BOOS!

Costume: Noun meaning as little clothing as possible. Trick or treat?

Bewitched by its charm, enchanted by its spell. Beware of monkeybread.

Can you name the movies in which these villains wreak havoc?
HAUNTED HOUSES AT HARVARD AND BEYOND!

Thayer Hall
A former textile mill, Thayer is said to be haunted by its former employees who can be seen walking through its brick walls dressed in Victorian-era garb.

The House of Seven Gables
An inspiration for Hawthorne's spooky novel of the same name, this house is now a museum.

Lizzie Borden Bed and Breakfast
Lizzie Borden took an ax
Gave her mother 40 whacks
When she saw what she had done
She gave her father 4!!
This bed and breakfast in Fall River, MA was the site of the infamous Lizzie Borden murders mentioned in the ditty above. For around $200, you can spend the night in the bedroom of Lizzie herself!

Harvard Medical School
In 1849, George Parkman, a wealthy Boston Brahmin disappeared near the Harvard Medical School. The janitor there later found his body in the laboratory of John Webster, a chemistry professor there. Though the building in which Webster's laboratory was housed is no longer standing, I would conjecture that the spirits of both Webster and Parkman might be lingering around the grounds where the grisly murder took place.

Take a study break and watch a spooky (or silly) Halloween movie tonight! Make sure to have lots of blankets to hide under and candy to nervously gobble and popcorn to throw in the air at the BOO moments. 😊

Mildly Frightening:
Hocus Pocus
Double Double
Toil and Trouble
Nightmare Before Christmas
It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown
Young Frankenstein

Mediumly Frightening:
The Rocky Horror Picture Show
Sleepy Hollow
Psycho
The Birds

REALLY FREAKING Frightening:
The Shining
A Nightmare on Elm Street
Silence of the Lambs
The Exorcist

Last Minute Costume Ideas by Concentration:

Michelle Bachmann (Government)
Freudian Slip (Psychology)
Your Thesis (History and Literature)
The Invisible Hand (Economics)
Watson and Crick (History and Science)
Feminist Ryan Gosling (WGS)
www.feministryanagosling.tumblr.com

Any of our evolutionary ancestors, dressed in human clothes. (HEB)
The Spirit of Capitalism (Social Studies)
Pi. This is a group costume for an infinite number of people. (Mathematics)
Edgar Allen Poe (English)
The Loch Ness Monster (Folk and Myth)