Reading period:
It’s the most wonderful time
of the year... kind of.

Influential Women
If Beyonce Wrote a Thesis...: Utilizing Fierceness as Compensation for Mediocre Writing.

As reading period rears its ugly head, the Hare Today would like to give you some inspiration to make that dark carrel in Widener a little brighter. Everyone knows that choosing a clever title for your research paper is the best part of this otherwise dreary week. Also, it's pretty likely that, in the rush of trying to get grades in, your teaching fellow will grade your paper based solely on the awesome-sauce-ness of your title. So, we offer you some examples of papers which certainly, in their imagined universe, received the highest marks.

HARE TODAY, YOU TOMORROW

Hare Today is a publication of the people, by the people, and for the people. And it shan’t perish from this earth if you valiantly step forward to help. Please email us suggestions! Also, the first three people to email levharetoday@gmail.com this week will be sent telepathic “good vibes” by the Hare Today editors on a final exam day of their choice. Act fast if you know what’s good for ya!

RIDDLE ME THIS! (extended version)

There are 5 houses in 5 different colors
In each house lives a person with a different nationality
These 5 owners drink a certain type of beverage, smoke a certain brand of cigar, and keep a certain pet
No owners have the same pet, smoke the same brand of cigar or drink the same drink.
Here’s the question: Who owns the fish?
The Brit lives in a red house
The Swede keeps dogs as pets
The Dane drinks tea
The green house is on the left of the white house
The green house owner drinks coffee
The person who smokes Pall Mall rears birds
The owner of the yellow house smokes Dunhill
The man living in the house right in the middle drinks milk
The Norwegian lives in the first house
The man who smokes Blend lives next door to the one who keeps cats.
The man who keeps horses lives next door to the man who smokes Dunhill
The owner who smokes Blue Master drinks beer
The German smokes Prince
The Norwegian lives next to the blue house
The man who smokes Blend has a neighbor who drinks water
With these 15 clues the problem is solvable.
