Things That Make You Go Mmm...
CHICKWICH PARMIGIANA BATTLE !!!

Ingredients:
- 1 chickwich from the grill
- 1 tomato slice
- Organic marinara sauce
- Shredded mozzarella (or jack) cheese

Order up a chickwich from the grill, sans bun.
Top plain chickwich with slice of tomato.
Slather with marinara sauce (approx. 4 tablespoons).
Heap with generous portion of shredded mozzarella.
Microwave until cheese is melted and the sauce is steaming (approx. 30-45 sec).

Awards for Human Rights Research

SUMMER RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY FOR UNDERGRADUATES FUNDED BY THE UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE ON HUMAN RIGHTS STUDIES

Awards are available for students from any discipline carrying out research projects anywhere in the world. Proposed research must relate to issues that centrally implicate human rights questions. All Harvard College students with sophomore or junior standing in spring 2003 are eligible. Students may wish to use the opportunity to prepare for junior tutorials or senior theses.

For additional information, including application forms and descriptions of last summer’s projects, please see our website at www.humanrights.harvard.edu/undergradstudy

Deadline: 12PM, February 28, 2003, Office of Career Services

These awards are made possible by the generous support of Harvard Law School alumna Gustave and Rita Hauser. In addition, The University Committee on Human Rights Studies announces the “Undergraduate Human Rights Programming Fund” to foster Human Rights events and programming at the Undergraduate level. Individuals and groups who are planning human rights related events are invited to apply to the fund, which will be disbursed on a rolling basis. While the committee will fund as many events as possible, the fund is limited. Additional funds will be available in the fall for next year’s events. Please contact Molly Curren at molly_curren@ksg.harvard.edu or 6-4950 for more information.

Bobby Sue’s Country Music Lyrics of the Week

Maybe the Valentine’s day magic is wearing off and your sweetheart isn’t treating you so sweet. Well, the legends of Country music are here to offer up some authentic country lyrics to let you know you’re not alone. Enjoy.

“I would have wrote you a letter, but I couldn’t spell “Yuck”

“If the phone doesn’t ring, it’s me”

“I bought the shoes that just walked out on me”

“I’ve been flushed from the bathroom of your heart”
The Ying Quartet Dinner

A MESSAGE FROM JOANN:
Dear Students: All Leverett students are invited to The Ying Quartet Dinner on Wednesday, March 12. There will be a reception from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. in the Masters’ Residence. Dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. followed by a Concert. The Yings are Blodgett Artists-in-Residence at Harvard.

If you would like to come, you can RSVP online by filling out the Questionnaire on your facebook page, or you can e-mail JoAnn at: jpdhaas@fas.harvard.edu or call her at 617-495-2278 and she will RSVP for you. If you do wish to do it yourself, your questionnaire becomes visible on your facebook page after you log on to the Leverett home page at: http://www.leverett.harvard.edu. Please e-mail Chief if you have forgotten your username and/or password and would like a new one. If you do sign up and later change your mind, it is important to modify your questionnaire as soon as possible to indicate this change because space is limited. This will be a wonderful evening and the dinner will be over-subscribed.

When you RSVP, please indicate if you would like Vegetarian or Kosher food or have any special dietary needs.

We hope that you will be able to join us for this very special evening!

French Table

The Leverett French Table meets every Tuesday from 6:30-7:30pm in the Dining Hall (NE corner). French speakers of all levels are welcome!

~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

French Table: le mardi, de 18h30 à 19h30 dans la cafétéria, (coin nord-est). Francophones de tout niveau sont les bienvenues!

LET’S DO IT, ROCKAPPELLA!

Submissions? Contact Bryan & Chris at news@leverett.harvard.edu by Friday evening

The House Ansiedade Built

AN ORIGINAL PIECE BY SHELBY BRAXTON-BROOKS
PRODUCED BY CARRIE BIERMAN
Loeb Ex — Feb 27, 28, March 1 at 7:30, and March 1 at 2:30
Tickets FREE at the Loeb Box Office

Samba, bossa nova, capoeira, caipirinhas, and palm trees. Racism is non-existent and Americans are welcomed with open arms. The party never ends in Brazil! But... what happens when you discover the palm trees are artificial and the samba is slightly out of tune? "The House Ansiedade Built", is a web of folklore, theater, music and movement that asks these and other questions as they relate to cultural anxiety in Brazil and the United States.

Join us on this unique journey and witness the disillusioning collision of fantasy and reality.

Golden Nuggets

TIDBITS OF WISDOM FROM BRYAN’S FAVORITE SITCOM

Rose: You know, Sophia, your problem at work reminds me of something that happened back in St. Olaf.
Sophia: Please. Dust reminds you of something that happened back in St. Olaf.

Dorothy: Stanley, what possessed you?
Stan: I love that car. All the memories we have in that car. The cruising, the drive-ins, the roadtrips...
Sophia: And don’t forget the accident you had in that car.
Stan: What accident?
Sophia: I'll give you a hint: it costs me ten bucks every Christmas, and still calls me grandma.

Fripples... DO SNOW BREASTS AUGMENT THE POWER OF THE MATRIARCHY?
Police were sent to a woman’s home in Ohio after a neighbour complained about a busty snow-woman. Crystal Lynn said she had gone for a realistic touch when she used two blobs of snow for breasts. Police said she should take the breasts off, but she refused, opting to drape a maroon tablecloth around the figure’s shoulders. Crystal, from Kent, Ohio, said: “She looked really good, like she was getting ready to go to a party.”

Police Captain James Goodlet said they’d received a complaint about an inappropriate snow figure. Mr. Goodlet says the officer didn’t demand Ms. Lynn alter her, but she claims she was given the impression she would be arrested for disorderly conduct if she didn’t comply. But Mr. Goodlet said: “We would have had to have someone file a complaint. We wouldn’t have charged at that. We were treating it almost as a neighborhood domestic situation.” He added it was the first time he’d fielded a complaint about an indecent snow figure in 26 years of police work.

—From the Charlotte Observer