Be a Superstar (or Just Look Like One)
Have you always wanted to be famous? Now's your chance: audition for the Bach Society Orchestra's annual Concerto Competition and win a chance to perform with Harvard's premier chamber orchestra in its March 9th, 2002 concert. All musicians (instrumentalists and vocalists) are encouraged to audition with any work scored for soloist and orchestra. Single-round auditions will be held the week of December 3rd. There is no audition fee, but you must provide your own accompanist. Contact Rebecca Wexler (rwe@fas, 3.3733) for details or to set up an audition time.

The Yeomen of the Guard!

Falsely accused of sorcery by his greedy cousin, Colonel Fairfax awaits execution in the Tower of London. Desperate to keep his cousin from profiting from his death, he weds a poor young woman, promising an hours-long marriage and a comfortable life. Of course, he escapes, and the characters are sent on a wild ride through romance, comedy, and heartfelt tragedy. The Yeomen of the Guard is classic Gilbert and Sullivan with a tragic twist. Come enjoy one of their finest works!

Through December 8 in the Agassiz Theater
Student tickets $4-8, at the Harvard Box Office or (617) 496-2222.

Luck? Be a Lady...

The Ann Radcliffe Trust in Harvard College in collaboration with the Women’s Leadership Project is proud to announce the fifth annual Harvard College Women’s Leadership Awards. Please feel free to take this opportunity to nominate a student you feel is qualified for this honor.

You may submit nomination letters to the fellowships office of the Office of Career Services any time before 5:00pm, Friday, December 7th, and there is no limit to the number of nominations you may make.

Each candidate must be nominated by a faculty person, staff member, administrator, or student in the form of a letter of recommendation. Nominated students will be notified and asked to submit a personal statement, resume, and additional letter of recommendation by January 11, 2002, in order to be considered for the award.
