

HoCo Hare Herald

Hey bunnies! Spring is finally in the air, and along with allergies and the impending doom of finals, that also means... PARTIES!! Here's what you have to look forward to:

BLACKOUT DANCE!

This Saturday. 10pm-2am. If you haven't heard about this by now, you probably have been living in a burrow somewhere. Come get your dance on, or if you sadly need to study on a Saturday night, you can drop off any prefrush you are hosting so you can get your intellectual on in peace. Also, if you sign up to help HoCo pub the dance this week, you will be able to attend Blackout for FREE!!! Good deal right? And while you're dancing you can start thinking about who you want to dance with at...

LUXE

It's going to be one classy affair. Held in your very own Leverett Courtyard, JCR, and Old Library, it will be a night full of dancing, music, and luxury. With a price of $15, this is something you can't afford to miss. More information will be available soon! Be on the lookout for posters and ticket-selling HoCo members.

That's all for now bunnies,

Your HoCo
