Art Has Never Been So Festive

From dance to photography, the 5th Annual Black Arts Festival has it all. The weekend of March 1st-3rd, the Black Arts Festival will host events in celebration of the unique contributions of the black artistic tradition to American society. Events include discussions at the Institute of Politics and performances by both professionals and Harvard students. Log onto www.blackartsfestival.net to view a full schedule. Contact Ashley McCants (mccants@fas) with questions.

Get "Advanced Standing" With Freshmen

The Freshman Dean's Office invites applications for advanced standing peer counseling from 3rd or 4th year advanced standing students. The positions require a commitment of approximately 20 hours extending over the first term. Counselors receive a $200 honorarium. Application forms are available at the Freshman Dean's Office, 6 Prescott Street. The deadline for submission of applications is Monday, April 1st, 2002.

I Disavow All Knowledge of This Event

Interested in a career in international relations or the intelligence community? Come to an informal career panel, "Internships with the Central Intelligence Agency and Department of State," on Tuesday, February 26th at 4:30 PM sharp at the OCS Reading Room. Both the CIA and DoS have early Fall (2002) deadlines for summer (2003) internships, so this session is perfect for first- or second-year students considering future options!

It might be said now that I have the best of both worlds: A Harvard education and a Yale degree – John F. Kennedy

A Classier Way to Drop the H-Bomb

The Harvard Shop, an affiliate of HSA, presents our Official Harvard Class Ring Sale! Order your Harvard Class Ring now and save up to $200! Visit us between Feb. 25-28, 12-6 PM at 17 Holyoke (old Campus Store) or between Mar. 1-4, 12-6 PM at The Harvard Shop (52 JFK St., across from Staples).

"I Shall Call It... Mini-Internship"

OCS' Harvard Career Internship Program has numerous Spring Break mini-internships still available in diverse fields from Real Estate to (shadowing in) Orthopedic Surgery to Journalism. Some internships even offer housing. Students should consult monstertrak.com, keyword: HCIP for more information.

Why Should I See This Play?

Come see Reason, a poetic kaleidoscope of the familiar and the not so familiar – a feast for the eyes, ears, and other digital senses. Playing Feb. 23 - Mar. 17 at the Market Theater (above Grendel's Den). Call 576-0808 for tickets; $10 students, $30 general.

Explain the Nuances of Being Sexiled

We are looking for Juniors to participate in a student panel discussion for the upcoming Junior Parents weekend. The panel will be held at 2:15 PM, Saturday, March 3rd. If you are interested in participating, please send an email to Michaela Daniel (mdaniel@fas) with your name and how you could contribute to the panel.

Latin America? But I Don't Even Speak Latin!

A priority of the David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies is to provide opportunities for Harvard students to travel and conduct research in Latin America and other appropriate sites. The Center's Summer Research Travel grants are essential in this effort; average grants amount to approximately $2,000. Application deadline is March 1st at noon. The Center's Summer Internship grants were created in an effort to assist students who wish to gain professional experience in Latin America. Application forms are due Friday, March 15th. Contact Ellen Schneider, schneid@fas, 6-9153 for more information.

Bobby McFerrin: Scotland's Most Carefree Artist

Harvard students are invited to observe Grammy Award-winning vocalist, composer, and conductor Bobby McFerrin lead workshops for undergraduate performers during his OFA sponsored residency. All sessions will be held at Sanders Theatre (except when otherwise noted). Admission is free. For more info, call 495-8676. The schedule is as follows:

Mon: Feb. 25, 2-4:30 PM: Harvard Jazz Band, Kuumba Singers

Tues: Feb. 26, 2-5 PM: A Capella Groups

Also, come witness a concert performance with McFerrin and Harvard undergraduate singers, musicians, and dancers, on Wednesday, February 27th at 8 PM, Sanders Theater. Tickets are available through the Harvard Box Office in Holyoke. For more info call 496-2222.

?! Bharat and Adam's Topics for Discussion ?!

- Bharat will never forget the day he left The Disney Afternoon behind and moved on to Saved by the Bell. Why was Saved by the Bell so good? Was there any show that better captured the high school experience?
- What about your first girlfriend or boyfriend did you find most attractive?
- If you were a pilot in Top Gun, what would your nickname be?

Like Your Old Guidance Counselor, Only Sentient

The Bureau of Study Counsel will offer the following programs in the next few weeks. Pre-group consultations are required for some groups. Please call 495-2581 to register or for more information. The Bureau also offers peer-tutoring services; undergraduates only pay $4/hour!
