Things That Make You Go Mmm...

UNDERRATED DINING HALL CONDIMENTS

RICE OIL

We don’t know what they put in this stuff, but it definitely tops the chart of underrated dining hall condiments. Sprinkle on a heaping bowl of steaming sticky rice, add some sesame oil to offset the sourness, and Dr. Atkins will be cringing at your carb-loading antics.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE

The succulence imbued by this subtle seasoning will turn even the most dried out fried potatoes into mouth-wateringly delicious home fries my dad would be proud to cook. Experiment with quantities—a small squirt can go a long ways.

Peace and War in the 21st Century
TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 8:30PM IN THE LEVERETT JCR
An open discussion moderated by Dr. Allen Sessoms, a member of the Leverett Senior Common Room. Come prepared to try to understand and discuss all sides of this difficult issue. Allen Sessoms is a lecturer on public policy at the Kennedy School. As an expert in Arms Control and Nuclear Nonproliferation issues, he is particularly qualified to help us understand the issues of peace and war in today’s world. Allen began his career in academia as an assistant professor of physics at Harvard. Allen then left the academic life for a varied career in the U.S. State Department. He served at the U.S. Embassy in Paris and was the director of the Office of Nuclear Technology & Safeguards as well as a technical advisor with the Bureau of Oceans & International Environmental and Scientific Affairs. He served as deputy chief of mission at the U.S. Embassy in Mexico, where he helped negotiate the North American Free Trade Agreement. Ten years ago, Allen returned to the academy again in an administrative role. He was executive vice president of the University of Massachusetts system from 1993-1995 and president of Queens College, in the CUNY system from 1995-2000.

APPLYING TO GRADUATE SCHOOL
THURSDAY, MARCH 20
3:30-4:30PM
OCS CONFERENCE ROOM

Is graduate school in your future? Begin planning for next fall’s applications and attend:
Laura S. Malisheski, Ph.D.
Assistant Director for Ph.D. Advising
Office of Career Services
Phone: 617-495-2595
Fax: 617-496-6880
malishes@fas.harvard.edu

I’ve been doin a lot of ponderin about appearance and reality lately… Graanna always said that come suppertime it’s the pork not the pig that fills you up.

“I Went To Bed At 2 With A 10 And Woke Up At 10 With A 2”

“She’s a T-bone talking woman with a hot dog heart”

“Papa loved Mama, Mama loved men, Mama’s in the graveyard, Papa’s in the pen.”

Bobby Sue’s Country Music Lyrics of the Week
HARE TODAY

FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 10—14

SUBMIT

Got something to say, buddy? (Perhaps a recipe suggestion?)

Contact Bryan & Chris at news@leverett.harvard.edu by Friday evening for publication in next week’s issue.

French Table

The Leverett French Table meets every Tuesday from 6:30-7:30pm in the Dining Hall (NE corner). French speakers of all levels are welcome!

French Table: le mardi, de 18h30 à 19h30 dans la cafétéria, (coin nord-est). Francophones de tout niveau sont les bienvenues!

Reminders from Chief!!

—STUDENT-FACULTY DINNER
—STUDENT SYSADMIN POSITION
—STUDENT-TUTOR ISSUES

For more information on these topics, read the emails you’ve received from Chief or check the Leverett website.

California Cops Bust Cheese Party

EASTVALE, Calif. - The cheese was their downfall. Several citations were issued during the weekend to people authorities said were making and selling illegal bathtub cheese and unpasteurized milk. Sheriff’s deputies and health officers responded after receiving complaints about a “Cheese Fiesta,” said a sheriff’s department spokesman. The parties are unlicensed events where illegal sales of meat and unpasteurized dairy products take place, he said. Cheese is often made in outdoor bathtubs. Pajarete, or “leche caliente,” is also sold. The drink is made from warm milk, sometimes laced with tequila or rum. Citations were issued for the manufacture and sale of unpasteurized milk and cheese, operating a food establishment without a permit and sales of alcohol without a permit.

—From Riverside Press-Enterprise 3/5/03

Is That a Pygmy Monkey in Your Pants or Are You Just Happy to See Me?

In December, Robert John Cusack, 45, was sentenced to 57 days in jail for a June smuggling caper on a flight to Los Angeles. He had four endangered songbirds and 50 illegal orchids in his luggage, and when one bird flew off down an airport corridor during an inspection, the agent asked if Cusack had anything else. "Yes," he said. "I've got monkeys in my pants" (actually, two endangered pygmy monkeys from Thailand, which Cusack dug down for and handed over).

—From the Los Angeles Times, 12/19/02

Golden Nuggets

TIDBITS OF WISDOM FROM BRYAN’S FAVORITE SITCOM

DeWolfe Apartments

DEWOLFE APARTMENTS THIS SUMMER?

60 air-conditioned 2-bedroom apartments with cable. 400 yds from Harvard Square, will be available for sublease to Harvard affiliates from early/mid June until late August. Application e-mails will be accepted by Harvard Real Estate Services after 8 am on Monday March 10 and will continue to be accepted until all apartments are leased.

For detailed information, please visit the DeWolfe Summer Sublet web page at: http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~uho/sdwmain.htm

Burger’s Up!

The town of Recklingshausen, Germany (near Cologne), which operates a zoo, found out in November that it could not summarily fire its zookeeper, even though it had caught him barbecuing and eating seven of his animals (five Tibetan mountain chickens and two sheep from Came-room). After a labor court hearing, the town was forced to comply with German law and give the zookeeper six months’ severance pay.

—From Reuters, 11/7/02

Taraana

Lowell Performance Hall

Saturday, March 15

Tickets $5, Harvard Box Office

All proceeds benefit Pathfinders Shelter in Lowell, Massachusetts

"Taraana" will be the first concert at Harvard to highlight South Asian MUSIC. Classical, modern, and fusion pieces will be performed. Artists from MIT and BU also participating.

Featuring Professional Artists:

Shri Anirban Das Gupta (sarod)
Shri Nitin Mitta (tabla)

Come support your fellow Leverites Jason Armstrong, Dominique Deleon, Mallika Mundkur, and Naresh Ramarajan as they perform!

For the Week of

For the Week of

DeWolfe Apartments

INTERESTED IN LIVING IN THE DEWOLFE APARTMENTS THIS SUMMER?

60 air-conditioned 2-bedroom apartments with cable. 400 yds from Harvard Square, will be available for sublease to Harvard affiliates from early/mid June until late August. Application e-mails will be accepted by Harvard Real Estate Services after 8 am on Monday March 10 and will continue to be accepted until all apartments are leased.

For detailed information, please visit the DeWolfe Summer Sublet web page at: http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~uho/sdwmain.htm

Burger’s Up!

The town of Recklingshausen, Germany (near Cologne), which operates a zoo, found out in November that it could not summarily fire its zookeeper, even though it had caught him barbecuing and eating seven of his animals (five Tibetan mountain chickens and two sheep from Came-room). After a labor court hearing, the town was forced to comply with German law and give the zookeeper six months’ severance pay.

—From Reuters, 11/7/02

Taraana

Lowell Performance Hall

Saturday, March 15

Tickets $5, Harvard Box Office

All proceeds benefit Pathfinders Shelter in Lowell, Massachusetts

"Taraana" will be the first concert at Harvard to highlight South Asian MUSIC. Classical, modern, and fusion pieces will be performed. Artists from MIT and BU also participating.

Featuring Professional Artists:

Shri Anirban Das Gupta (sarod)
Shri Nitin Mitta (tabla)

Come support your fellow Leverites Jason Armstrong, Dominique Deleon, Mallika Mundkur, and Naresh Ramarajan as they perform!

Is That a Pygmy Monkey in Your Pants or Are You Just Happy to See Me?

In December, Robert John Cusack, 45, was sentenced to 57 days in jail for a June smuggling caper on a flight to Los Angeles. He had four endangered songbirds and 50 illegal orchids in his luggage, and when one bird flew off down an airport corridor during an inspection, the agent asked if Cusack had anything else. "Yes," he said. "I've got monkeys in my pants" (actually, two endangered pygmy monkeys from Thailand, which Cusack dug down for and handed over).

—From the Los Angeles Times, 12/19/02

Golden Nuggets

TIDBITS OF WISDOM FROM BRYAN’S FAVORITE SITCOM

Blanche: I've never been so humiliated in my life.
Dorothy: What about the time you lost the key to your handcuffs and had to go with that guy on his mail route.
Dorothy: You're just jealous because I have a date on Saturday night and you don't.
Blanche: Saturday night? Kid stuff. Get lucky on a Tuesday morning, then call me.
Blanche: I don't look right in American clothes, I have a more European physique.
Rose: Oh, in Europe they all have big butts, too?