Things That Make You Go Mmm…
THE TUNA BATTLE !!!

This weeks submission comes from Steve Snyder ’05, who insists it tastes good.

Ingredients:
tuna fish
1 tsp of mayonnaise
1/2 tsp relish
pasta

Mix the tuna fish, mayonnaise and relish in a bowl. Pour on a bed of pasta and enjoy…

Summer Employment
WORK FOR GSAS HOUSING SERVICES

Looking to spend your summer in Cambridge? Spend it working in the Office of Housing Services and Student Services at Harvard’s Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. We are looking to hire an office assistant for the months of June, July and August (25-35 hrs/wk) and part-time during April, May and September (10-15 hrs/wk). Compensation includes free housing in a GSAS Residence Hall for the summer as well as an hourly wage. For more information, please email gmgingo@fas.harvard.edu or call 5-5060.

DeWolfe Apartments
INTERESTED IN LIVING IN THE DEWOLFE APARTMENTS THIS SUMMER?

60 air-conditioned 2-bedroom apartments with cable, 400 yds from Harvard Square, will be available for sublease to Harvard affiliates from early/mid June until late August. Application e-mails will be accepted by Harvard Real Estate Services after 8 am on Monday March 10 and will continue to be accepted until all apartments are leased.

For detailed information, please visit the DeWolfe Summer Sublet web page at: http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~uho/sdwmain.htm

Speedy

A hamster which was found driving a toy racing car on a Lancashire seafront has been given a new home. Speedy has left the Fylde Animal Sanctuary to live with Rachel Reader in Fleetwood. He was handed into police by startled day-trippers who spotted him in a toy dragster on the seafront at Cleveleys, near Blackpool. The Blackpool Evening Gazette says he’ll be moving without his toy car because the RSPCA has confiscated it. Mrs Reader said: “We saw the story in the paper and on television, and I felt sorry for Speedy. We had a spare hamster cage and I thought if he needs a home he can come here.” It is thought Speedy’s previous owner had been playing with him in the car on the seafront and had left forgetting about him. Margaret Bysterbosch, secretary of Fylde RSPCA, was concerned about the sale of the cars, because the little creatures are effectively trapped inside the wheel until someone lets them out. “I think they are dangerous and can be very cruel if they are misused,” she said.

—From Ananova.com

Bobby Sue’s Country Music Lyrics of the Week

We often look to cowboys for answers to life’s difficult questions, without realizing that they too have important questions of their own. This week, we salute their cowhide queries. Git along, lil dogie…

“How come your dog don’t bite nobody but me?”

“If you leave me, can I come too?”
HARE TODAY FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 3—MARCH 7

Treasures of Siam
HARVARD-MIT THAI CULTURAL SHOW
7:30 on March 7th, Lowell Lecture Hall
Treasures of Siam is a Thai cultural production that will incorporate traditional dances, music ensemble, martial arts, and skits of traditional ceremonies. The event aims to give the Harvard community a taste of Thai culture and its intricacies. The performances will be followed by a reception of delicious Thai food and drinks, featuring popular items such as Pad Thai and Thai Iced Tea. $8 for undergraduate students, $12 for general admission. Tickets available at the Harvard Box Office.

French Table
The Leverett French Table meets every Tuesday from 6:30-7:30pm in the Dining Hall (NE corner). French speakers of all levels are welcome!

Harvard Material
High school senior Brian Delekta filed a lawsuit in February against the school system in Memphis, Mich., alleging that he actually did A-plus work in one course but only received an A for it, and that his average should be even higher than it is (and Delekta was ranked first in his class by the end of his junior year). The course at issue here is a "work experience" course in which he served as a paralegal in a law office and did a fine job, according to his supervisor. That supervisor happened to be his mother, Diane, who said she meant that he did A-plus, not A, work.

---From the Minneapolis Star Tribune, 2/6/03

Dinnertime Conversation
Kenneth Patrick Porche Jr., 22, was arrested outside the ladies’ room at Dillard’s department store in Houma, La., in January, carrying four plastic bags of urine and several empty bags labeled with descriptions such as “old woman.” Police said they believed that Porche would enter a stall, disable the toilet's flush mechanism, and line the bowl with a plastic film to catch the urine, before hiding away in an adjacent stall. After a woman used the toilet and left, Porche would collect and bag the urine from the plastic film. Since Porche’s behavior was difficult to characterize, police charged him under the catch-all “criminal mischief.”

---From Houma Today, 1/30/03

SUBMIT
Got something to say, buddy?
Contact Bryan & Chris at news@leverett.harvard.edu by Friday evening for publication in next week’s issue

$1 MOVIE NIGHT
Don’t waste $10 at Loews this weekend. The UC will be screening Steven Spielberg’s “Catch Me If You Can” with Tom Hanks, Leonardo DiCaprio, and Christopher Walken for just $1!
Thursday, March 6th @ 9 PM
Science Center B
Tickets available at the Harvard Box Office. Generous support provided by the Harvard/MIT Coop.

The Ying Quartet Dinner
A MESSAGE FROM JOANN:
Dear Students: All Leverett students are invited to The Ying Quartet Dinner on Wednesday, March 12. There will be a reception from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. in the Masters’ Residence. Dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. followed by a Concert. The Yings are Boggle Artists-in-Residence at Harvard.
If you would like to come, you can RSVP online by filling out the Questionnaire on your facebook page, or you can e-mail JoAnn at: jpdhaas@fas.harvard.edu or call her at 617-495-2278 and she will RSVP for you. If you do wish to do it yourself, your questionnaire becomes visible on your facebook page after you log on to the Leverett home page at: http://www.leverett.harvard.edu. Please e-mail Chief if you have forgotten your username and/or password and would like a new one. If you do sign up and later change your mind, it is important to modify your questionnaire as soon as possible to indicate this change because space is limited. This will be a wonderful evening and the dinner will be over-subscribed.

When you RSVP, please indicate if you would like Vegetarian or Kosher food or have any special dietary needs. We hope that you will be able to join us for this very special evening!

Golden Nuggets
TIDBITS OF WISDOM FROM BRYAN’S FAVORITE SITCOM

Dorothy: Why can’t you sleep on the couch and give Clayton and Doug your room?
Blanche: Are you crazy, what will the neighbors think if they see two men in my bedroom?
Sophia: They’ll think it’s Tuesday.

Blanche: Dorothy, do you think I’m dressed okay for the dog races?
Sophia: That depends - are you competing?