Lev Horoscope

Aries: You most definitely will or will not feel a vague sense of momentous accomplishment very soon.

Taurus: I foresee roast beef, rigatoni and brown rice pancakes in your future (I'm feeling Wednesday, dinner).

Pisces: I predict that your birthday is sometime in the next month.

Gemini: You are running out of board plus. That was quick.

Cancer: You feel a strange pressure pushing you towards working in ibanking. What could it be?

Leo: Sorry to have to tell you this, but you will visit the quad soon.

Virgo: You will hear about someone famous visiting Harvard campus this week, but will be too lazy/busy/cold to see them for yourself.

Libra: You will feign interest in an event because they promise free pizza, only to discover it has run out already.

Scorpio: You will hear about someone else's summer plans and be thrown into a fit of self-doubt, culminating in the realization that you're actually doing fine.

Sagittarius: You will realize that you can no longer remember which freshmen dorm is which.

Capricorn: ...You've put off laundry long enough.

Aquarius: You will go get a froyo now. Don’t refrain just to spite me. You know you want one.
The Oscars

- Katharine Hepburn has won four Oscars for her acting roles in Morning Glory, Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner, The Lion in Winter, and On Golden Pond.
- Meryl Streep has been nominated for acting roles a record 17 times, winning just twice.
- The youngest winner of an Oscar was Tatum O’Neal at age 10 for Paper Moon.
- Michael Jackson bought the Gone with the Wind Best Picture statuette for $1.54 million in 1999.
- Sound re-recording engineer Kevin O’Connell has been nominated 20 times and has never won a statue.
- The shortest speech record is held by William Holden and Alfred Hitchcock who both simply said, “Thank you.”
- The first Academy Award ceremony in 1929 lasted 15 minutes, the winners had been previously notified.

Mystery Movie Quote

Last week’s quote: “Do I really look like a plan? I don’t have a plan. The mob has plans, the cops have plans. You know what I am? I’m a dog chasing cars. I wouldn’t know what to do if I caught one” was from The Dark Knight.

“If I’m going to make a fake movie, it’s going to be a fake hit.”
