Contact the Hare Today
Questions, comments, or concerns? E-Mail us at levharetoday@gmail.com to post information about your student groups or also if there is anything you would like to change.

Person of the Week
Christopher Mathew Lupien

What background is “Lupien”?
It’s French. I’m part Swedish, French, Lithuanian, and German. I’m a mutt; I’m from everywhere.

How long have you been working in Leverett?
When I was first here, I was underage. I was 20 then, so I’ve been here for 7 years, going on 8. When I first came here, I was different, I was the assistant cook, I didn’t know much about what was going on, just cooking for 400 people a meal. Now, after 7/8 years of doing it, you learn the tricks of the trade to make things move smoothly.

What’s your favorite HUHDS dish?
That’s a hard question. Favorite dish... I like the chicken marsala. I’m a big fan of the red-spiced chicken and our clam chowder, but we don’t make the soup.

What do you do outside of the kitchen?
I spend a lot of time at the MAC, playing IM basketball. Yesterday, I played pickup basketball after work. I try to play as much as I can to get better for the IMs.

Did you play basketball when you were younger?
I grew up in Pomfret, CT and there was IM basketball for kids my age called Frog-Rock. There was this rock, situated between Pomfret and Eastford, which someone painted green, so the two towns would have basketball competitions. I was a much better shooter when I was younger. I actually had a jump shot, but now I only make half the shots that I throw. My dad tried to get me to shoot with my left hand and I really took it to heart, so now, I’ll end up shooting lefty sometimes. It actually screwed up my jump shot because when I go to shoot, my left hand would instinctively get in the way and mess up my shot.

Tell us about a vivid childhood memory.
I was very shy and quiet. I still am, so that hasn’t changed much.

If you could be a superhero, what would you want your superpowers to be?
Have you ever seen the movie, Jumper? He has the ability to look into a photo and jump into that movement in life. You look a photo and, boom, you’re there. It’s pretty cool to go back and go anywhere, see anything. You wouldn’t have to buy a plane ticket or anything—just look at a plan and boom, you’re there!

If you won $20 million in the lottery, what would you do with the money?
I think about that everyday! The first thing: I would buy a house. I might even still work—just live comfortably and still work part-time. I just want to have fun.

Announcements

HOUSE EVENTS
11/10 Thesis Writers Study Break
9-10:30pm, Leverett Towers F110

11/11 Community Night
5-7pm, DHall

11/11 Sherry Hour
5-6pm, SCR
11/12 Chamber Music Concert
6:30-7:30pm, Masters’ Residence

11/15 Student-Faculty/Activities Dinner

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Now through 11/28 Harry Potter Scavenger Hunt
9am-5pm, Harvard Museum of Natural History

11/8 First Nights Performance of Beethoven’s 9th
6pm, Harvard Allston Education Portal

11/10 Harvard-Cambridge Walk for Peace
12pm, John Harvard Statue

11/11 Veterans Day!

11/11, 11/12 M Butterfly
8pm, Adams Pool Theater

11/11-13 G&S Players present: Ruddigore
8 PM, Agassiz Theater

11/11-14 The Balcony
8pm, Loeb Theater

Acronyms
Bet you can’t guess these!
90 D in a R A
3 B M (S H T R)
32 is the T in D F at which W F
15 P in a R T
3 W on a T
100 C in a D
11 P in a F (S) T
12 M in a Y
13 is UFS
8 T on a O
Sports vs. Hobbies

Now I know a lot of you out there think you’re athletes because you get to wear dHas all the time, but let me tell you a little something, half of you aren’t. Let’s start with the non-athletes and work our way up. Fencing, golf, diving, sailing and the like—definitely not sports. When I can take a date on the miniature version of your game you’re proooobably not a legitimate sport. Now, the questionable sports; crew, swimming, alpine skiing, cross-country—why would you ever want to do your sport? I’m not bashing your life choice because I’m sure you’re skinnier than most of the rest of us, but seriously, who wants to row a boat at 5 AM in 34 degree weather. It’s like golf where you actually break a sweat. Now for the real sports; hockey, football, baseball, wrestling, basketball—this is where people actually come out to watch men (and women) play sports. When you include the possibility of breaking bones, play offense AND defense and get more than three dozen people to come out and watch, I might actually pay to watch your sport. I know this might grind some of your gears but hey, that’s why I’m here. If you disagree I want to hear it. Let’s hear your arguments halfletes.

You Need To Get Out Of The Library If...

*You don’t know who won the World Series (or the fact that it just finished).
*You haven’t seen LeBron play for his new team (or didn’t even realize he’d been traded).
*You think the democrats still run the House.
*You haven’t found time to “hide ya kids, hide ya wife”
*You were an hour early to class because you hadn’t changed your clocks back.
*Your Mom called to ask when you were coming home for Thanksgiving and you didn’t even realize it was November.
*You want to see the shenanigans the Final Clubs are about to make their punches do for initiation.
*YOU HAVEN’T GOT YOUR HARVARD YALE TICKETS.

Riddle of the Week

RIDDLE:
Walk over the living, they do not even mumble; walk over the dead, they mutter and grumble. What are they?

Answer to Last Week’s Riddle:
Each man rides the other man’s horse.

Rabbit Facts

*The largest litter of baby rabbits is 24. It has happened twice. Once in 1978 and again in 1999.
*A rabbit has 18 toenails: 4 on each of the back feet, and 5 on each of the front.

Facts: Who Knows When These Might Help

0) $111,111,111 \times 111,111,111 = 12,345,678,987,654,321$
1) 12 newborns will be given to the wrong parents daily.
2) 101 Dalmatians and Peter Pan (Wendy) are the only two Disney cartoon features with both parents that are present and don’t die throughout the movie.
3) 99% of the solar systems mass is concentrated in the sun.
4) A cockroach can live several weeks with its head cut off.
5) A cow produces 200 times more gas a day than a person.
6) A dime has 118 ridges around the edge.
7) A hard working adult sweats up to 4 gallons per day. Most of the sweat evaporates before a person realizes it’s there.
8) A pig’s orgasm lasts for 30 minutes.