Interested in Playwriting?
The Hasty Pudding Theatricals is looking for potential playwrights for its 154th annual show. The production is seen by some 15,000 people in Cambridge, New York, and Bermuda, and offers the best opportunity on campus to showcase your talents as a comedic musical theatre writer. Please contact Greg Padgett (padgett@fas) or Krishnan Unnikrishnan (kunnikr@fas) with questions.

Cure Cancer!
This weekend an intrepid yet spry team of undergraduates will spend the night at the MIT track to complete the American Cancer Society’s Relay for Life. We need your support! E-mail murg@fas to arrange pick-up or drop them in U Mail to 102 Leverett MC. All pledges benefit the American Cancer Society. No pledge is too small!

C.O.A.C.H.
The C.O.A.C.H. Program seeks qualified Harvard students to serve as “college coaches” in the Boston public schools. The goal of the program is to help high school students understand their options for higher education and careers, and to help them achieve their goals. Students work in the schools to help seniors at Dorchester and Charlestown High Schools navigate the obstacle course of the financial aid and college application process. Coaches receive training and a stipend. Visit http://www.ksg.harvard.edu/coach, or e-mail Rgarber@ksg.harvard.edu for more information or to apply.

Desperately Seeking Futon
Needed: Futon for the summer! Are you putting your futon in storage? Want to lend it to a Leverett Class of 2000 alum for $$$ instead? I can pick it up whenever you’d like, and it will be returned to you (or Leverett) at the end of the summer! Compensation negotiable. Contact me (Martha Chase) at 978-749-4968 or mrchase@post.harvard.edu. Thanks!

Thinking ahead...

Word of the Week
Maginot line /MAZH-uh-no lyn/ (n): an ineffective line of defense that is relied upon with undue confidence

France has no shortage of linguistic generals who seek to regiment French and see an enemy lurking behind every new word or phrase, but despite a Maginot line of laws, word-vetting committees and diktats from the Academie Francaise, Franglais continues to infiltrate their ranks.
