HARE TODAY

Week of October 17th, 2011

LEVERETT & HARVARD EVENTS

10/17: Careers in Public Service Dinner 6-8pm in the Taubman Building (please RSVP to kara_minar@harvard.edu with “Public Service Dinner” in the subject line)
10/17: Harvard-Cambridge Fellowship Info Meeting 7:30-9pm in Lev JCR
10/17: Lev Pre-Med Meeting 9:30-10:30pm in Lev JCR
10/18: Greater Boston Universities’ Service Week Begins! Look for the email over Lev-open for the link to sign up and work with Cradles to Crayons! (Just search your mail for “Greater Boston Universities”)
10/19: Flu Clinic during dinner in Lev DHall - protect yourself and your loved ones!
10/19: Harvard Community Run 5:15-6:15pm - Meet on the steps of the MAC
10/19: Mind Matters: Stress and Self-Care at Harvard 7-9pm in Canaday B Basement (the Women's Center Lounge)
10/20: Harvard Community Walk 12 Noon - Meet on the steps of the MAC
10/20: (not just) Sherry Hour 5-6pm in the SCR
10/20” Community Night beginning at 5:30pm in Lev DHall
10/21: Harvard-Princeton Football Concert at 8pm in Sanders Theatre
10/22: Row, Row, Row Your Boat! (Head of the Charles)

NAME THAT HISTORICAL FIGURE (PLEASE!)

1. “It may seem strange that any men should dare to ask a just God's assistance in wringing their bread from the sweat of other men’s faces, but let us judge not, that we be not judged.”
2. “I stand before you tonight under indictment for the alleged crime of having voted at the last presidential election, without having a lawful right to vote.”
3. “Let every nation know, whether it wishes us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe, in order to assure the survival and the success of liberty.”
4. “Ideas are more powerful than guns. We would not let our enemies have guns, why should we let them have ideas.”
5. “Anyone who lives inside the United States can never be considered an outsider anywhere within its bounds.”
6. “It is through democracy, diversity and pluralism that we can together build a world of interfaith understanding and tolerance, a world free from terrorism.”

LEVERETT HIDEOUT

They descended upon the yard, green ears ablaze, to start the party.

Made a list of all the things I need to do. So, I’m going to bed.

Please remember: Flu Shots in the D-Hall Wednesday! Build your tolerance

OMGzzz! Flu shots! ☺️
RIDDLE ME THIS

1) A barrel of water weighs 20 pounds. What must you add to it to make it weigh 12 pounds?
2) What can you keep after giving it to someone else?
3) The more you take, the more you leave behind. What are they?
4) What do you fill with empty hands?
5) What can you keep after giving it to someone else?

DHAL GOURMAND

In the words of Liz Lemon, "I believe that all anyone really wants in this life is to sit in peace and eat a sandwich." With these words of wisdom in mind, I present you this option for schnazzifying (this might not be an actual word) your lunch menu.

If you like PB&Js, try a PB&H&B (peanut butter-honey-banana) panini!

2 slices of bread
2 tbsp. peanut butter
Honey
1 banana
Butter/margarine
Napkin

Take two slices of your choice of bread (whole wheat holds up a bit better in this recipe, in my opinion) and spread a thin layer of peanut butter on each piece. Cover one side with slices of banana (ideally not too thick) and then drizzle with honey to your taste. Assemble the sandwich, and spread a bit of butter on both sides of the bread facing the outside. Set the sandwich on the panini press and press down gently. Let sit about two minutes or until the outside of the sandwich is golden brown. Lean over your plate and bite into a gooey, delicious mess of a sandwich! Use napkin as needed.

INTREPID TOTS

-- "A 4-year-old California boy got behind the wheel of his mom's SUV and went on a wild ride after she left him unattended in the car. The boy, whose name has been withheld by police, was traveling in a car seat with his mom around 4 p.m. Thursday when she pulled over to the Summit House restaurant in Fullerton, Calif.

While his 27-year-old mom got out of the car to use a pay phone, the nimble toddler unbuckled his car seat, jumped behind the wheel, put the vehicle in gear and sped away, police said.

He managed to sideswipe another vehicle, cross into oncoming traffic, roll the car over, see it land back on its tires and just keep driving. The boy drove about a third of a mile in all before the car hit trees and came to a stop.

"We're still investigating how all this happened," Sgt. Andrew Goodrich of the Fullerton Police Department said. No bystanders or fellow drivers were hurt, and police said the child sustained minor to moderate injuries. The SUV was badly damaged.

"He was very fortunate," said Goodrich. The Fullerton Police Department's traffic unit and family crimes detectives are investigating the accident, the Orange County Register reports."

(Want to be a PART OF HARE TODAY?

The Hare Today is a community newsletter so everyone should be involved! Feel free to email poems, pictures, recipes, riddles, or little-known-facts to the editors at levharetoday@gmail.com.

(Source: Katie Kindelan at ABC News Blogs)